STARLIT MAGIC • PRINTABLE GUIDE

How Tall to Ride

Every ride height minimum across WDW's four parks. Measure once, plan the whole trip.

Most rides welcome every height. These are the ones with a minimum, sorted low to high in each park so you can find your child's number fast. Cast members may measure at the entrance, so measure with shoes on before you go.

TOO SHORT? USE RIDER SWITCH

One adult waits with the child while the rest ride, then up to two from the waiting group ride without lining up again. Just tell a Cast Member at the entrance.

AT THE WATER PARKS

At Blizzard Beach, Summit Plummet and Downhill Double Dipper require 48".
