What's in Your Park Bag?

The gear that saves your day, and the stuff they'll turn away at the gate.

A great park day is mostly preparation. Pack the essentials, skip the banned list, and breeze through security.

PACK THIS

BEAT THE HEAT

- Refillable water bottle (free ice water at any quick-service counter)
- Handheld or neck fan and a cooling towel
- Sunscreen, hat, sunglasses

BEAT THE RAIN

- A folding umbrella or a couple of ponchos (far cheaper than in-park)
- Gallon zip bags to keep your phone and wallet dry

STAY POWERED

- A high-capacity power bank and cable. Park days drain your battery fast.

THE LITTLE THINGS

- Medications, bandages, blister plasters
- Hand sanitizer and wipes
- A lightweight day bag within the size limit

LEAVE IT HOME

BANNED AT SECURITY

- Wagons of any kind, including stroller wagons (strollers must be under 31" × 52")
- Selfie sticks and handheld extension poles
- Glass containers (small baby-food jars are the only exception)
- Loose or dry ice in coolers. Bring reusable ice packs instead.
- Weapons, self-defense sprays, or anything shaped like a weapon
- Marijuana, including marijuana-enriched products

GOOD TO KNOW

Bags and coolers must be 24" × 15" × 18" or smaller.

Parks are smoke-free except in designated spots.

Baby food and formula are welcome.
